

City Council
Special Meeting
February 16, 1999

The City Council of Mount Holly met for a special session at 6:30 P.M. in the Archives Room at City Hall. Those present were:

Mayor Frank McLean

Mayor Pro-Tem Phyllis Harris

Councilman Andy Stewart

Councilman Bobby Black

Councilman Bryan Hough

City Attorney Kemp Michael

Councilman Jim Hope was still at home recuperating from surgery, but was connected by telephone. Councilman Michael Helms was absent.

Councilwoman Harris moved to go into closed session for the purpose of interviewing city manager applicants, seconded by Councilman Hough, with all in favor.

The Council interviewed three applicants.

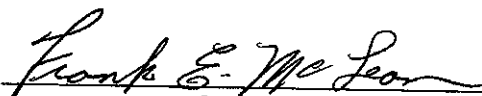

The Council returned to open session upon motion by Councilwoman Harris, seconded by Councilman Black, with all in favor.

The Council set a special meeting for February 25, 1999, at 7:00 P.M. at City Hall for the purpose of possible action on hiring a city manager.

There being no further business before Council that evening, the meeting was adjourned, at 9:45 P.M.
